Beatles Tribute Band!

Beatle Magic is without a doubt the most musically satisfying Beatles tribute band on the scene today. Boasting the high visibility of strong vocals, music and a commitment to the accurate reproduction of the Beatles, this is the band to see if you want to know what it might have been like had the Beatles toured today. Beatle Magic painstakingly recreates the aura and sound of the Fab Four through numerous phases of The Beatles' phenomenal career. The show begins with the group's historical appearance on the Ed Sullivan show, then passes through A Hard Days Night and continues with the mania of The Beatles' first Shea Stadium performance. The audience is next treated to the memorable songs from Sgt. Pepper and Magical Mystery Tour, before the shows winds down Abbey Road and culminates with the band's famous rooftop performance at Apple Records' London office, which is so closely identified with the Beatles final, classic album, Let It Be.

Finely detailed costume changes range from the band's collarless grey jackets circa 1963 to Sgt. Pepper's full psychedelic regalia and the pivotal image transition of Magical Mystery Tour. Beatle Magic's musical repertoire is second to none, featuring all the singles and favorite songs from every major Beatles' album release. With more tunes added weekly, the show is truly getting better all the time.

Beatle Magic has excited crowds and entertained thousands of fans across the US and Canada, continually growing in popularity. This Beatles cover band has even performed with original Beatles' drummer, Pete Best! Beatle Magic regularly plays parties/events for a wide variety of corporate clients such as Merrill Lynch, Ingram Micro, IBM, 3COM and Cisco among others. The near universal appeal of The Beatles' music makes this Beatles band the perfect entertainment choice for any event. Likewise, the show's all-ages appeal creates an ideal family outing where parents and kids can bond, sharing the joy and magic of The Beatles' music together. At a Beatlemagic performance, a splendid time is guaranteed for all!
